this afternoon, lasting eleven innings. Durham overcame Richmond by the score of 1 to 0. Angier in the last inning hit safe over left field, and when the fielder, who was angry en account of a decision of the umpire in the tenth, refused to go after the ball, the batter was given a home run, winning the game.

The visitors registered several kicks against the decisions of the umpires and delayed the game considerably in the tenth, when Bates drove a liner to center for three bases, and a minute later was caught off the base and assisted back by the conch, who placed his hands upon the runner. For the interference of the conch the runner was declared out, and a lengthy discussion followed.

followed.

Richmond came near scering in the third. Covington made his first appearance with Durham today, never having faced a league team before, and held the visitors to four hits. He was relieved in the ninth inning by Atkinson, who yielded one.

The feature for Richmond was the work of Bates in center field and his three-base hit. The pitching of Covington and the fielding of Litchfield in left were the features for Durham. The score:

Not satisfied with the Molly Janes beating the tar out of the local Ints. they had to say some real masty things about Jack Dunn's minions. See what one had to say!

"On the showing made in yester day's game the Richmond club is due to finish about last, if it does not drop out of the International League altoship are with the Virginia League champions. The Tars not only outhit and outleded the Double AA's but showed more life on the bases and in every other department of the game.

And not content with that, they accuse the lints with playing like semipros, with the accent on the semination of the lints, they say.

Lest the world be misled by the nick-name of the lints, they say.

ERRORS CAME VERY FAST

Both Teams Did Mighty Poor Fielding Throughout Game-Marshallites Have Taken Ten Contests in a Row.

John Marshall High won its tenth successive game by completely overwhelming the Smithdeal Business College yesterday afternoon, 21 to 7. The game was filled with a galaxy of errors, stolen bases, hits, wild throws and happenings expected and unexpected, chiefly the latter.

Tyson, who started in the box for John Marshall, was knocked around by the Smithdeal boys, who scored three runs in the first and second innings, respectively. These runs were partly due to the erratic support given him. Fuller, a port-sider, relieved Tyson in the third inning and completely held the enemy in check, only one run being scored off of him. It came across in the seventh.

The high school boys had considerable trouble in solving the delivery of Dunaway, who started for the collegians, but, when they did, the bail went by the fielders like a shrapnel. The Marshallites annexed six runs in the Marshallites annexed six runs in the third, due to heavy hitting, coupled with errors. Dunaway was forced to retire, a victim of the terrible onslaught.

England went to the mound in the fourth to stem the terrible siaughter, out, instead, he was pounded for a total of four hits, which netted eight runs. Again, in the sixth, four runs were brought across by high school. In the seventh inning, England began pitching good ball, but he was touched up for two runs in the eighth and one in the ninth, making the final score twenty-one to seven in favor of the high school, making a triple, doubio and single.

Both teams made a multitude of errors, making it difficult to pick out a shining light in the field. Several times both teams made inexcusable miscuss on the simplest kind of plays, the ball sometimes going through two or three men.

The players stole bases at will, a total of sixteen bags being annexed.

John Marshall did not play the good game that it has been putting up, which was probably due to the chilly weather. The coldness seemed to take all of the pep away from the players.

High School sent in several subs in the farewell imings, who seemed to play about as well as the regulars. In the last inning, all of the infield changed positions, the pitcher going to third base, and Captain Tinaley going in the box. The score:
